Kim Abdou

Kim specialises in Middle Eastern Dancing. Explore and enjoy the steps and movements of this ancient, sacred and creative form of dance. This workshop is an introduction covering a brief history and a few basic steps and movements.

Dance Floor: Sunday 1:30 pm-2:00 pm

Band Who Knew Too Much

Drawing from a wide variety of styles from Jazz to ska combined with the unusual instrumentation of piano accordion, clarinet, washboard, drums, trombone, guitar and double bass, they all sing up a storm to create a unique live show full of energy and theatrics that entices even the most reluctant to toe-tap. CDs Available

Hall: 4:20 pm-5:00 pm

Sunday: Kids W'shop: 1:00 pm-2:00 pm

Parissa Bouas

One of the busiest performers this weekend! When not performing with Hottentot Party, Parissa will be conducting two workshops. The Saturday w'shop will deal with the Vocally Challenged and how to make that voice do what you want it to. On Sunday her workshop on Performance Anxiety and how to turn it into a positive force, will most certainly be well attended!

Sunday: W'shop Tent: 2:00 pm-3:00 pm

Margaret Bradford

One of the regulars at The Creek, Margaret has been doing some reflecting lately on the life of school children since early settlement and this will be featured in one of her workshops for kids. At home with the guitar and bowed psaltery, she sings some grand old folk/popular classics. An all round Festival Performer, Margaret can be seen here, there and everywhere and, seemingly, all at the same time! CDs Available

Saturday: Kids: 11:00 am-12:00 noon;

Church: 3:30 pm-4:00 pm.

Braidwood Cantors

The Cantors are a diverse bunch of people and perform a wide range of songs ranging from the earliest song in the English Language to Bette Midler and Van Morrison. Ably conducted by Barry Waters, who has fostered the musical talents of the Braidwood area for many years, they will be part of a 2 hour special concert being held in the Church.

Saturday: The Church 4:00 pm-6:00 pm.

Braidwood Dance Inc

This great dance group will cover a wide range from line dancing to creative movement. Ably led by the dynamic Alison McLean who has devoted a large part of her life to teaching dance to the community from pre-schoolers to advanced adulthood. Saturday will be a dance display and Sunday will be an involvement-style workshop.

Saturday: Dance Floor 12:00 am-1:00 pm

Sunday: Dance Floor 11:30 am-12:20 pm

Rob Brooking & Cindy Reed

One of the Far South Coast's top guitarists, Rob covers a wide range of styles and music from Tommy Emmanuel to Merle Travis. His timing and interpretation of the music is something that should not be missed. He is joined by Cindy Reed on two occasions when they will present a mix of many comfortable styles of

John Broomhall

A well-known singer of mostly original material has released several albums and is a regular guest on Australia All Over. From Broken Hill, John now lives and plays in Wollongong. He will join Johnny Spillane for performances. CDs Available

Saturday: The Hall: 1250 pm-1:30 pm
Sunday: The Hall: 2:00 pm-2:30 pm

Sean Brown:

A young man from Co. Wexford that has recently immigrated to Australia and better still to Moruya. Something old and something new with some of the best flute playing you will want to hear. Sean is no slouch with guitar and vocals and will be doing his best to entertain you. Come along, don't miss!!

Saturday: The Church 8:30 pm-9:00 pm

Greg Bull

Known for his many talents in a great many fields from acting to singing and beyond. Greg will be helping to comper the Poets' Breakfasts and looking after the main stage. Well-known in the Sydney area and the Venue operator of the Loaded Dog, Greg is certainly welcome at our Festival.

Kate Burke & Ruth Hazleton

Two young women renowned for their musicianship, vocal harmony and original arrangements of Scottish, Irish, English and American traditional songs. Since receiving the LIs Johnston Award for vocal excellence in 1998 and releasing their first CD The Bee-Loud Glade they have not looked back and are warmly received no matter where they go. Add Kate and Ruth to your 'must see list'. CDs Available Saturday: Main: 4:00 pm-4:40 pm; The Hall: 7:00 pm-7:40 pm

Sunday: The Church: 2:00 pm-2:30 pm

Karen Burton

Writes about the things that really matter and sings of them in a rich, clear voice. A graduate of the UK folk scene, Karen makes a return visit to our Festival after the warm reception she received here last year. CDs Available

Friday: Hall 7:30 pm-8:00 pm
Saturday: Main Stage: 11:30 am-12:00 am;
Church: 1:30 pm-2:00 pm

Canberra German Dancers

Describe themselves as a happy band of people who play German Music and enjoy dancing polkas, schottisches, waltzes and more. The enthusiasm with which they perform, rubs off, and you find yourself joining in and being happy too.

Saturday: Dance Floor: 3:30 pm-4:00 pm
Sunday: Dance Floor: 2:00 pm-2:30 pm

Greg Champion

"Champs" is full of wacky, wonderful songs. "I made a 100 in the Backyard at Mum's" and "Roll Over Rolf Harris" give you a glimpse of his nutty mind. A member of the long-running comedy team The Couldabeen Champions brings his mirth and mad hattery to Majors Creek for the first time! A regular on ABC Radio's Australia All Over, Greg is perceptive about Australian culture and reflects our amusing foibles in his widely loved music. CDs Available heaps Saturday: Main Stage: 12:00 noon-12:40 pm; Main Stage: 5:00 pm-5:30 pm.

Sunday: Main Stage: 12:00 am-12:30 pm

Jo Cresswell

Jo is playing a double role at the Festival. Firstly as a performer on the Anglo Concertina, when you will be able to hear how well those trips to County Clare have paid off, and secondly, as a workshop leader. Jo was the Program Director for the National Folk Festival for six years and as a result has gained much insight on how performers should and should not present during application time. Take advantage of her workshop "Promotional Skills for Performers".

Saturday: Church: 6:30 pm-7:00 pm
Sunday: W'shop Tent: 1:00 pm-2:00 pm

Maura Dand (Searle)

Traditional music from England, Scotland, Spain and Australia. Original and contemporary songs either Acapella or accompanied on the Appalachian Dulcimer. Humour, tragedy, pathos and love are all part of the picture when Maura starts to sing. Recordings available

Saturday: Church: 2:00 pm-2:30 pm
Sunday: Church: 11:30 am-12:00 noon

Craig Dawson

With over 150 songs to his credit, several prestigious song-writing awards and over fifteen years of performing and teaching music and guitar, he is a performer not to be missed. The man with the 'flying' right hand!! Highly emotive lyrics, some sad, some inspiring and hopeful plus one or two that will make you react as only you can when faced with the "naked truth". His latest CD "The Malfunction Room" presents a powerful commentary on modern life in Australia. CDs Available

Friday: Hall: 8:00 pm-8:30 pm

Saturday: Hall: 5:00 pm-5:30 pm & Church: 9:00 pm-9:30 pm

Alan Dean

Alan's belief in re-using as much as possible on this planet for the benefit of mankind, has led him to use recycled materials to make Musical Instruments. His workshops for children are well attended and start the young minds working on how many other 'things' can be recycled.

Saturday: Kids Workshop: 2:00 pm-3:00 pm

Divided by 3

Join Phil Emerson, Graeme Hume and Trish Butler as they take you through traditional, original and humorous songs. There may be a madrigal or two thrown in for good measure.

Ecopella

Fourteen singers under the direction of Miguel Heatwole sing about environmental issues. Their songs come mainly from the folk movement and include original compositions by Paul Spencer and Miguel Heatwole. All are skilfully arranged to produce music that is passionate, sophisticated and a beautiful shade of green.

Saturday: The Church 12:00 pm-12:30 pm

Sunday: The Church 12:00 pm-12:30 pm

Rory Ellis

Rory's music is street level, yet fresh, spirited and delivered to you as a solo acoustic performance. One of the few true storytellers and with his own brand of contemporary folk rock music he touches upon a myriad of human emotions drawn from his own experiences and those he has come in contact with. fiery ex-rock muso on Piano Accordion and ex-classical violinist turned folk fiddler, Sandy Gibney. They'll knock your socks off!

Friday: Main stage: 7:50 pm-8:30 pm
Saturday: Hall: 3:50 pm-4:30 pm

Fife & Clackmannanshire with Kate Delaney

Kate Delaney and Fife & Clackmannanshire join forces to present an inspiring blend of Scottish songs, airs, strathspeys, jigs & reels. Kate's renowned skill and warmth as a singer is combined for the first time at a festival with Canberra's top Scottish Band. One performance only!!

Saturday: Hall: 11:30 am-12:10 pm

Folk Dance Canberra

One of our regular dance groups performing international folk dances from Israel, Bulgaria, Romania and Russia. Always a pleasure to watch!

Saturday: Dance Floor: 11:00 am-11:50 am & 4:00 pm-4:30 pm

Gan Ainm

Maybe best described as "dirty elevator music". This band doesn't let tradition stand in the way of a good time. Mixing raucous Russian drinking tunes with Israeli Bluegrass, and the Spice Girls with Finnish-sounding pieces from Austria, Gan Ainm amuses even the most seasoned folkie. Energetic antics and foot-stomping good fun.

Friday: Main stage: 9:40 pm-10:30 pm
Saturday: Hall: 8:20 pm-9:00 pm
Sunday: Hall: 3:00 pm-3:40 pm

Roy Gardner

A local veteran of Music at the Creek. A stalwart organiser on much of the music scene and one of the forces behind the Braidwood Cantors. He will be performing in the Church in the Braidwood Dear Braidwood concert.

Saturday: Church: 4:00 pm-6:00 pm

Irene Gillespie

A Majors Creek performer who is actually from Majors Creek. A young lady with a pleasant warm voice, Irene is planning to carry on in the family tradition and will be accompanied in her performance by Peter, her dad.

Saturday: Church: 3:00 pm-3:30 pm & will also perform in the Braidwood Concert.

Gulaga Dancers

With another year behind them, these six young Aboriginal men have a great future in presenting their dances and culture to the wide festival audience. They have taken the Yuin name for Mount Dromedary which is located near their home town of Wallaga Lake. Tradition at its best.

Saturday: Main stage: 2:00 pm-2:30 pm
Sunday: Dance floor: 12:20 pm-1:00 pm

Bob Hart

Bob will be presenting a Beginners Workshop in Clawhammer/Frail Banjo geared towards five-string Banjo players and basics. Some elusive tricks will be presented during the workshop.

Sunday: W'shop tent: 12:00 pm-1:00 pm

Hottentot Party

Their charismatic performances, spiced with joyful energy, rhythmic interplay and travel tales have enthralled audiences all over Australia, Europe and Brazil. Weaving modern and traditional folk idioms they create a style of contemporary folk that is indelibly their own. Two-time winners of the NCEIA Awards for Album of the Year, Carl Cleves and Parissa Bouas compose and sing music inspired by the rich and various cultures in which they have lived.

Saturday: Main Stage: 3:20 pm-4:00 pm & 8:30 pm-9:10 pm. Sunday: Main Stage: 12:30 pm-1:00 pm

Graeme Hume

Graeme does the lot! Kids' shows, poetry, story-telling, funny stories & singalong songs. During the two workshops for kids he will be presenting such masterpieces as the "Chook from Snowy River" and "Rindecella" as well as his own published work "The Flight of the Fat Fairy".

Saturday: Tennis Court: 1:00 pm-2:00 pm
Sunday: Tennis Court: 12:00 pm-1:00 pm

Jim Jarvis

Highly regarded for his finger-picking, acoustic guitar style and as a Folk & Blues singer/songwriter, Jim performs regularly at folk Festivals and clubs and is a member of "Three Left Feet". He also performs with his wife Meera and daughter Bethany as The Jarvis Family. You will hear a mixture of Irish tunes, folk songs and good blues all in the one basket!

Saturday: Hall: 12:10 pm-1250 pm & Main stage: 8:00 pm-8:30 pm
Sunday: Church: 1:00 pm-1:30 pm

Graeme Johnson

He's back!! The "Voyeur of Vocabulary" who selects his words with care and then throws them down onto the canvas of life's experience. Result: laughter, tears and what makes us tick. Graeme will be busy at the festival, compering, workshoping and performing. Just the way he likes it.

Friday: Main Stage: 7:00 pm-7:30 pm

Saturday: Kids' Festival: :3:00 pm-3:30 pm
& Church: 7:30 pm-8:10:00 pm
Sunday: Poets' Breakfast at the Session Bar

Elizabeth Kearney & Luciano Baseggio

Respected performers from the Far South Coast of NSW. It has been said that they "weave threads of magic" through tunes in exploring their possibilities. With the fine craftsmanship shown on violin and bouzouki, their music will embrace and invigorate you.

Saturday: Church: 12:30 pm-1:00 pm & Main stage: 6:10 pm-650 pm
Sunday: Hall: 1:30 pm-2:00 pm

Keith McKenry

A cheeky, irreverent character, Keith has been a performer at many major Australian folk venues. In concert he interweaves his original verse with bush poetry, producing a mix of history, humour and social comment which doesn't readily fit into any stereotype.

Saturday: Poets; Breakfast: 9:00 am-10:30 am & Church: 7:30 pm-8:30 pm
Sunday: Church: 12:30 pm-1:00 pm

Molongolo Mayhem Border Morris

Back again to give us another serve of the Mayhem of Morris Dance, they perform traditional and contemporary dances from the Welsh Border counties of Herefordshire, Worcestershire and Shropshire.

Saturday: Dance floor: 3:00 pm-3:30 pm
Sunday: Dance floor: 1:00 pm-1:30 pm

Mr. B

An acoustic blues trio, mostly playing the music of the American black musicians of the early parts of this century. You'll hear music of Robert Johnson, Blind Blake, Lightnin' Hopkins, Mississippi John Hurt and Huddie Ledbetter. The band comprises Malcolm MacDonnel (blues harp), Rick Owens (slide guitar, mandolin, vocals), Bob Hart (guitar, vocals)

National Capital Bootscooters

This group is very much involved in the popular "line dancing". They run classes and social activities in the ACT. Their first performance will be a "get involved" workshop-style presentation where you are encouraged to participate and learn. The follow up dance display on Sunday will give you a chance, again, to join in and 'strut your stuff'!!

Saturday: Dance floor: 2:00 pm-3:00 pm
Sunday: Dance floor: 11:00 am-11:30 am

Rick Owens

Guitarist with Mr. B will present a workshop on

'Fingerstyle Guitar'. This is designed for people who can strum a couple of chords and would like to make a start on finger picking. Several styles will be presented starting with Carter-style of playing arpeggios for accompaniment and moving through to monotonic (drone) bass in simple blues playing. Tab sheet will be available.

Saturday: W'shop tent: 3:30 pm-4:30 pm

Pastime with Good Company

Recently formed 'early-music' group Mary Appleby, Kate Park, Libby Collard, Tina Evans and Karen Lamb from Braidwood will entertain you with recorders, percussion, singing and cello. Thanks to our sponsor Pierre McAdam who has provided a spare cello, tea, alcohol and encouragement over the last year.

Saturday: Church: 4:00 pm-6:00 pm, part of the Braidwood Dear Braidwood Concert

Edward Pember:

Percussion workshops for kids. There will be 8 drums for use, otherwise bring your own drum to enjoy some African rhythms.

Pigeon House Jazz Trio

This trio started in 1995 with a line-up of John Dallimore (banjo), Norm Sims (trumpet/trombone) and Herman Jansen (sousaphone). They play traditional/dixieland jazz and have appeared regularly in a variety of venues and Jazz Festivals up and down the South Coast. They hail from Milton/Ulladulla and their ages are a closely guarded secret.

Saturday: Main stage: 5:30 pm-6:10 pm & Hall: 7:40 pm-8:20 pm

Andy Saunders:

A singer and performer of British and American Folk Music. Guitar, mandolin and fiddle with a song or two from Ewan McColl thrown in for good measure. Andy has been performing at the Creek for almost as long as it's been going.

Saturday: Church: 1:00 pm-1:30 pm

Serendipity

This duo of Simone Olding and Sherri Cuttle perform mainly Celtic music using a variety of styles and instruments. From flute, recorder and whistle to mandolin, guitar, bouzouki and bodhran they will enchant with a mix of beautiful harmonies. Refreshing music to strengthen your soul.

Sunday: Church: 1:30 pm-2:00 pm

Geoff Seymour

Geoff is a 'jack-of-all-trades' when it comes to instruments and to music in general. He performs many styles as diverse as they come. He will be holding a workshop in how to play the five-string in what some know as the "Pete Seeger style". You will no doubt see Geoff joining Wongawilli and many others for the Old Time Bush Dance on Saturday night.

Saturday: W'shop Tent: 3:30 pm-4:30 pm

Shiny Bum Singers

Like a good time and enthusiastic singing. "Work Songs of the Public Service" can best describe these humorous, satirical parodies of old folk songs, written by members of the group. You won't be able to NOT sing; you won't be able to help yourself.

Saturday: Church: 6:00 pm-6:30 pm

Erin Smith & Friends

Erin and her friends invite 5-15 year olds to join in using props to create characters then act out that character in a session of theatre sports.

Saturday: Kid's: 5:00 pm-6:00 pm

Johnny Spillane

'If John isn't in it then it's not happening' is how he's described in the 1999 Illawarra Folk Festival's programme. Originally from County Cork, he dabbles in pipes, bodhrans and any other musical instrument you can blow or beat. In addition to performing with John Broomhall he will also be conducting a Beginners Tin Whistle workshop.

Saturday: Hall 12:50 pm-1:30 pm, W'shop tent 2:30 pm-3:30 pm

Sunday: Hall: 2:00 pm-2:30 pm

The Governor's Pleasure

Enjoy the world of Mrs. Bennett and Mr. D'Arcy as these dancers demonstrate the elegance and grace of the dances which thrilled Jane Austen's heroines. Many influences from the Highland reel, Irish jig and the stately minuet, will be seen.

Sunday: Dance Floor: 2:30 pm-3:30 pm

Us Not Them

An acoustic duo who combine strong original compositions with striking interpretations of Australian traditional and contemporary material. The duo have four years extensive performance experience and have released three very well-received CDs. Also with Wongawilli and Jindi.

Saturday: Church: 11:30 am-12:00 noon

Sunday: Hall: 2:30 pm-3:00 pm

Wongawilli

Without a doubt Australia's premier Bush Band who play everything from Mazurkas and Tarantellas to the best Irish Jigs and Reels and everything in between. They will be featured in a special concert "The Southern Cross is Calling" on Sunday where you will hear the songs of Kavisha Mazella, Ted Egan, Alistair Hulett, Neil Adam, Joe Paolicci and many more. They will also conduct the regular Sat. Night Dance in the Hall. The costumed Wongawilli Colonial Dancers will also entertain you with a display of traditional dances on the Dance Floor.

Saturday: Hall: 9:00 pm-10:30 pm (Bush Dance) and Sunday: Hall: 12:00 pm-1:30 pm (Southern Cross is Calling)
