Welcome From The President

Welcome to another year of fabulous music at Majors Creek!

Each year the selection of performers seems to take longer; not only because we are getting more applications to play at the festival, but because the quality of the musicianship makes choice hard for us.

I hope that you will find this festival as friendly and entertaining as ever, with the variety of bands, singer/songwriters and dance displays and workshops in which we welcome you to participate.

We are endeavouring to reach zero waste this year, and are redoubling our efforts to provide an efficient recycling system. We love Majors Creek, and hope that you do to.

Have a great festival.

Erika Mordek

President

wasteWise

This year with assistance from Palerang Council and The Department of Environment and Conservation we are again aiming to have no waste to landfill if possible. Your assistance with using the correct bins will greatly help us to achieve this target.

Braidwood Cantors

Sat Hall 6.45pm

For the past 12 years the Braidwood Cantors have been singing old, new, sacred and secular music, gospel, and original compositions - you name it, we sing it! After some hearty choruses following rehearsals in one of Braidwood's hostels, we thought we'd add some music hall numbers to our repertoire. This fine tradition will be resuscitated, enlivened by some fresh music in the same vein, and presented for your delectation and delight in the salubrious Major's Creek Hall.

Bron Ault-Connell

Sat Main 12 noon

Sat Hall 3.45pm, Marquee 6.30pm & 9.45pm

In her short musical career Bron has accumulated an impressive list of credits including becoming the first female to take out the 2004 'Young Guitarist of the Year'. Bron is a vivacious guitarist and vocalist with an acoustic blues feel. Her style draws from such greats as Tommy Emmanuel and Paul Simon.

Craig Dawson & Simone Olding

(Simone & Craig)

Sat Church 12.30pm

Craig - Sat Wshop 1.45pm, Sun Marquee 3.00pm

Simone and Craig perform original songs and instrumentals which cover a range of folk music styles including early Delta Blues, Ki Hoalu (Hawaiian slack key) with occasional Celtic and Country Music influences.

Their songs are often poignant, occasionally capricious hard hitting ballads which explore a variety of political, social and even ludicrous topics.

Czardas

Fri Dance 8.30pm, Sat Marquee 10.00am

Sat Wshop 12.30pm, Main 7.30pm, Sun Church 3.00pm

The band play a panoply of gypsy music from Russia and Hungary, a touch of klezmer, a bit of Balkan and the occasional venture into flamenco. In addition to this Czardas play original material inspired by the music of Eastern Europe. Their music is romantic, full of passion and pathos. In their concerts they add a sprinkle of gypsy swing revealing the lighter whimsical side of gypsy music.

Margaret Bradford

Sat Church 10.30am & 3.15pm

Margaret's well-crafted songs of conscience, humour and compassion reflect social and environmental issues with a touch of satire which gets you questioning today's values. With guitar and bowed psaltery accompaniment she uses a vast emotional range.. Her unique CD, Simply Psaltery, where she accompanies her singing to a bowed psaltery, is indicative of her live performances margie@loyaltyisp.com.au

Maureen O'Brien

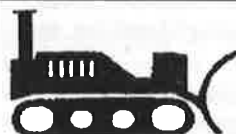

Sat Church 1.15pm, Main 3.30pm, Marquee 8.15pm

WORKSHOPS

SATURDAY

Braidwood Cantors

Hall Sat 6:45pm

Music Hall

A little of what you fancy does you good! Come along and join the Braidwood Cantors for a dose of good old-fashioned variety in the music hall tradition. We'll be singing old favourites, some for the kids, and some newer songs (Eric Idle, Flanders & Swann) in the old tradition. We'd love you to join in - help us raise the roof of Majors Creek Hall! Song sheets will be provided.

Craig Dawson

W'Shop Tent Sat 1:45pm

Talkin' Bob Dylan

For die-hard fans only, examines the life, art and influences on Bob Dylan from his early days to the present. A brief seminar-style presentation will be followed by audience discussion and participants being invited to perform their favourite Dylan song. Craig will also examine Dylan's guitar styles.

Czardas

W'shop tent Sat 12.30pm

Fake it Till You Make It

A workshop for guitar, fiddle & mandolin, aimed at unlocking some of the mysteries of improvisation. Areas covered include Waffeology (the art of creating beautiful phrases through seemingly unstructured sonic effects), blues scales & when to use them, tune based improvisations and double-stopping.

David Meyers

W'shop tent Sat 3.00pm

Songs, Poems & Characters from the Monaro

The workshop will focus on the stories, songs & characters from his history of folk on the Monaro "A Score & a Half of Folk: Thirty Years of the Monaro Folk Music Society Inc." He will be asking the participants to tell their own stories of life on the Monaro & to join in with the songs where possible.

Guitar Olympics

Hall Sat 3:45pm

Bron Ault-Connell, Trevor Dunham, Richard Steele, Steve James and Pete Bennett (Tamnesia) battle it out for over an hour of electrifying guitar gymnastics.

Helen Rowe

Church Sat 4.30pm

Waiting in the Wings: Faces of Australian Women.

Presenting vignettes of Australian women seen through the eyes of Aussie writers, singers & poets both well known & lesser known. The workshop takes a challenging look at the archetypes of 'Aussie women'.

Madrigal Mystery Tour

W'Shop Tent Sat 11:15AM

Madrigal Singing

Geoffrey Badger, choir director and music educator will explain the historical and cultural background of madrigal music in addition to leading you in song in this lively choral workshop

Mal Webb

W'shop Tent Sat 5:30pm

Vocal Gymnastics

Around the world and into your brain, vocal adventurer and songwriter Mal Webb takes you on a lip to lung journey through the fun, physics and physiology of all the sounds a face can make.

Murphy's FolkloreSessioning Workshops

W'shop tent Sat 10am, 4.15pm Sun 10am

Musicians of all standards should find these sessions meaningful and fun.

Celtic players are advised to bring along a copy of "Begged, Borrowed and Stolen"

Tony Eardley

Hall Sat 1.15pm

The Barricade & the Rose: Songs of Struggle & Dissent from 1970s Britain

Presenting a varied set of songs by both famous and lesser-known writers from this period. The songs are set in context with an accompanying narrative & evocative visual imagery, with plenty of opportunity for audience participation.

WORKSHOPS

SUNDAY

Czardas Church Sun 3.00pm

Beneath These Mountains

Tunes & Tales from Tasmania's Apple shed dance era 1840 - 1950

This workshop combines theatre & music. Steve & Majorie Gadd have spent years researching the almost lost traditional country dance music of Tasmania, publishing a book of these tunes. They bring these tunes to life by taking on the personas of the characters who played this music.

Jason and Chloe Roweth Hall Sun 12.30pm

The Riderless Horse - An Australian Impression of WW1

The riderless horse was led through the streets of Australian towns to the beat of a military drum . . . "The Empire needs you! Who will fill the saddle?"

This unique presentation of songs & poetry from the time provides a rare insight into a young nation's experience of the 1st World War, both in the trenches & on the home front.

Tenzin Choegyal W'shop tent Sun 11:15pm

Tibetan Singing

Tenzin leads an innovative workshop in the Tibetan style of vocal projection and shares his knowledge of the technique and the stories told through songs of Tibet's nomadic people. Participants learn simple Tibetan folk songs and investigate the ancient Tibetan art of "Lama Mani".

Just a TAD and Moz W'Shop tent Sun 12:30pm

Harmony Singing

Learn and sing songs in lush and powerful four-part harmony with members of Just a TAD and Moz: Tom Bridges, Alison Jones, Deanne Dale, and Maurie Mulheron. The quartet combine their resources to help you lift your hopes and make tyrants tremble.

Shiny Bum Singers Hall Sun 1.45pm

How to be a Shiny Bum

The Bums will facilitate a singing workshop, allowing participants to become "Shiny Bums" for an hour - the chance of a lifetime! You will have the opportunity to join the Bums in singing, dancing & moving through some of the Bum's well known parodies

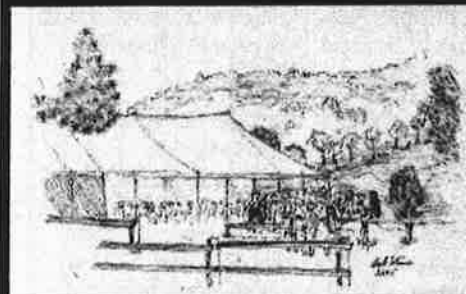

Wheeze and Suck Band Hall Sun 11.15pm

Tradition and Ceremony

From Mayday revels to Christmas mummers. Dances, songs & tunes from the four seasons. Will have the audience dancing and singing.

Paul Wookey Fri Main 10.00pm

Sat Main 5.00pm, Church 10.00pm Sun Marquee 3.30pm

Since first appearing at the legendary Frank Traynor's folk club in 1973-74 Paul Wookey has been a highly respected member of Melbourne's folk scene. Although his recorded output is small, three albums spanning some thirty years, he has played extensively throughout Australia and overseas. Paul has also worked on both television and radio and with many overseas and local touring artists including, Jesse Winchester, John Hammond, Mark O'Connor, Vince Gill, Ralph McTell and even a stint as lead guitarist for the late blues great Jimmy Witherspoon. An acknowledged influence on songwriter Shane Howard, his own songs are regarded by none other than Glen A Baker as "powerful important Australian songs".

The Shiny Bum Singers

Sat Hall 10.45am & 6.00pm Sun Hall 1.45pm

The Shiny Bum Singers are a visually entertaining group of mostly public servants (some have been outsourced), who sing their own wicked parodies about office work.

They have performed to packed houses at the National Folk Festival in recent years and have toured extensively both in the ACT and to festivals in the Southern Region.

No subject in the workplace is safe from the finely honed fingers of the group's talented writers, nor is any folk song (or any other song for that matter) immune to their unique style of parody.

You have heard the work songs of all of the other occupations. Now, you can join the Shiny Bums in their hilarious tribute to the Australian office worker.

Wheeze and Suck Band

Sat Main 2.15pm & 11.00pm Sun Hall 11.15am, Main 12.45pm

The 'Wheezers' gigs are unusual in several ways. For one thing, they actively invite their audiences to join in with their voices and instruments. "The spirit of roots music is in its shared experience, so our invitation extends beyond just singing along," states 'the Pump'. Most striking is their dress sense. The Pump will often sport a lady's dress, whilst Pyro wears a formal suit and Bongo an original Beatles jacket. And to crown this strange musical apparition, all four heads sport black top hats.

Wayward Folk

Sat Church 10.00am & 7.00pm Sun Church 1.15pm

A multi instrumental folk group performing songs from Australia, North America and the U.K. in a traditional acoustic folk style. Songs with a strong chorus and good audience participation are a feature of a Waywood Folk performance.

Waywood Folk have been performing together for the last five years as the resident Folk group of the Hornsby Ku-ring-gai Folk club, and have featured at private functions, St. Albans and Umina Folk Festivals and the James Craig Sea Shanty Festival.

Will-o'-the-Wisp

Fri Dance Floor 9.15pm Sat Dance Floor 10.30pm

Will-o'-the-Wisp is a theatrical fire circus, based in Canberra. The latest show from Wisp is 'Reel Fire', a fire show to excite all folkies. With Fire pyramids, fire twirling, juggling and even a flaming polka, Will-o'-the-Wisp have created a fire show around the jigs and reels of Celtic folk band Full Circle. This show has everything from, fire skipping to leaping musicians...
